

Lesson 8

Series A

Let's End the Conflict!

1. In every family conflicts arise. How early should they be addressed?

Ephesians 4:26, 27. “Do not let the _____ go down on your wrath, nor give place to the devil.”

2. Following God's example, what should husbands and wives do when they experience conflict?

Isaiah 1:18. “Come now, and let us _____ together.”

We need to sit and talk; talk and listen. Each should try to see the other person's point of view.

3. Let's identify the crucial step in resolving each problem?

Philippians 2:3-5. True (T) or False (F)

- Insist on my own way.
 - Give preference to my partner.
 - Follow the self sacrificing example of Jesus.
- If each endeavors to please the other we will arrive at a happy compromise—a point of mutual agreement.

4. Sometimes we hurt each other. How can I make wrongs right?

James 5:16; Matthew 6:14, 15. True (T) or False (F)

- For whatever wrong I have done, I should say, “I am sorry.”
- If my spouse has wronged me I should forgive.
- I should then pray with and for my mate.

5. There is another conflict in our universe! Who are the contenders? Where did the battle begin?

Revelation 12:7-9 tells us that it began in heaven. The opponents were Christ called _____, and Satan, called the _____. The battle was then transferred to earth, and is in progress today.

6. As Satan nailed Christ to the cross he thought he was victorious. But who was the real victor at Calvary?

Revelation 12:10, KJV. “Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His _____; for the accuser of our brethren is cast down”!

7. When Christ comes in glory, what will happen to the family of God

1 Thessalonians 4:16; Revelation 20:4. True (T) or False (F)

- Those who are dead will be resurrected.
- Those who are alive will go to live in Palestine.
- They will reign with Christ 1,000 years.

8. What will become of Satan and his family?

Revelation 20:1-3, 7-10. True (T) or False (F)

- Satan will be bound for 100 years.
- When he is loosed he will deceive for the last time.
- Finally, he and his followers will be destroyed by fire.

9. The conflict will be over! Christ will be the Victor! Describe the scene of joy and peace.

Revelation 21:1-4. In the New Heaven and the New Earth, God will dwell with His people. There will be no more tears, no more sorrow nor crying, no more pain nor death. Life forever and ever!

10. My Response

- I will resolve conflicts and experience peace in my family.
- In the spiritual conflict, I reject Satan! I choose the side of Jesus.
- When the war is over, I want to live with Christ—Happy Family forever!
